TENNYSON'S NEW POEM.

The following poem by Alfred Tennyson appeared in Macmillan's last week. It is entitled "The Charge of the Heavy Brigade, Balaklava, October 25, 1854." By Alfred Tennyson. The three hundred of the Heavy Brigade, who made this famous charge, were the Scots Greys and the Second Squadron of the Enniskillens, the remainder of the Heavy Brigade subsequently dashing up to their support. The Three were Elliott, Scarlett's Aid-de-Camp, who had been riding by his side, and the trumpeter, and Shoggo, the orderly, who had been close behind him:

I.
The charge of the gallant Three Hundred, the Brigade!
Down the hill, down the hill, thousands of Russians,
Thousands of horsemen drew to the valley—and staid.
For Scarlett and Scarlett's Three Hundred were riding by
When the points of the Russian lances broke in on the sky;
Then he called, "Left wheel into line!" and they wheeled and obeyed;
Then he looked at the host that had halted, he knew not why,
And he turned half round, and he bade his trumpeter sound
"To the charge!" and he rode on ahead, as he waved his blade
To the gallant Three Hundred, whose glory will never die.
"Follow and up the hill!"
Up the hill, up the hill, followed the Heavy Brigade.

II.
The trumpet, the gallop, the charge and the might of the fight!
Down the hill, slowly, thousands of the Russians,
Drew to the valley, and halted at last on the height,
With a wing pushed out to the left, and a wing to the right,
But Scarlett was far on ahead, and he dashed up alone,
Through the great gray slope of men;
And he whirled his sabre, he held his own,
Like an Englishman there and then,
And the three that were nearest him followed with force,
Wedged themselves in between horse and horse,
Fought for their lives in the narrow gap they had made,
Four amid thousands; and up the hill, up the hill,
Galloped the gallant Three Hundred, the Heavy Brigade!

III.
Fell, like a cannon-shot,
Burst, like a thunderbolt,
Crushed, like a hurricane,
Broke through the mass from below,
Drove through the mist of the foe,
Plunged up and down, to and fro,
Rode flashing, blow upon blow,
Brave Enniskillens and Greys,
Whirling their sabers in circles of light,
And some of us, all in amaze,
Who were held for a while from the fight,
And were only standing at gaze,
When the dark muffled Russians crowd
Folded its wings from the left and the right
And rolled them around like a cloud—
Oh! mad for the charge and the battle were we,
When our own good red-coats sunk from sight,
Like drops of blood in a dark-gray sea;
And we turned to each other, muttering all dismay;
"Lost are the gallant Three Hundred, the Heavy Brigade!"

IV.
But they rode like victors and lords,
Through the forests of lances and swords,
In the heart of the Russians' hordes
They rode, or they stood at bay;
Struck with the sword-hand and slew;
Down with the blade-hand drew
The foe from the saddle, and threw
Under foot there in the fray;
Raged like a storm, or stood like a rock
In the wave of a stormy day;
Till suddenly, shock upon shock,
Staggered the mass from without;
For our men galloped up with a cheer and a shout,
And the Russians surged, and wavered, and reeled
Up the hill, up the hill, up the hill, out of the field,
Over the brow and away.

V.
Glory to each and to all, and the charge that they made!
Glory to all the Three Hundred, the Heavy Brigade!

To keep machinery from rusting: Take one-half ounce of camphor; dissolve in one pound of melted lard; take off the the scum and mix in as much fine black lead as will give it an iron color. Clean the machinery and smear with the mixture. After twenty-four hours rub clean with a soft linen cloth. It will keep clean for months under ordinary circumstances.

Oscar Wilde's lecture at Milwaukee was attended by less than 300 people.

COUNTY POINTS.

TWO LICK.

The farmers have been plowing some during the fine weather.

Burning tobacco beds is the order of the day.

The wheat in this section is very forward. Some persons have been pasturing their wheat fields.

Moving time is here. We have quite a stir in that line now.

D R Morgan has moved to near Morefield, Nicholas county.

John Case has moved into the house vacated by Mr Morgan.

J D Woodward, of Kentontown, has moved to the George Case farm.

Miss Helen Orme was visiting her sister, Mrs G C Case, last week.

Miss Malisa Ginn, of Rock Spring, is visiting here.

Joel Woodward sold his crop of tobacco to Jap Black at 12 cents all round.

The Two Lick Church is now without a pastor, Rev L D Jackson having resigned.

That wedding will take place soon, probably by the time this item is in print.

There are more persons with sore arms than we ever knew at one time. Because why? Vaccination.

Preparations for a large crop of the "popular weed" (tobacco) is being made. We hear of several barns to be built this summer.

Joel Woodward's sale last Monday was well attended. Everything sold well. He leaves this week for Fayette county where he has rented property.

Our public school closed last Friday. There was quite a spirited contest for the prizes offered for the best spellers. Miss Mattie Woodward and Ida Asbury won the laurels in the first class and Emma Woodward and Mattie Asbury in the second class. HOMO.

May the groom be happy with his beautiful bride. The attendants—Mr J L Chamberlain, Miss Laura Kerr; Mr H J Strausbaugh and Miss Ella Britton, were becomingly attired. THE bill to place General Grant on the retired list of the army is meeting with considerable opposition in the House of Representatives. The democrats oppose it solidly and there is a good deal of talk of some Republicans going against the measure. It is conceded that the passage of the bill will be strongly resisted.

It is worth while to pause and consider the point made by Senator Bayard in relation to the Peruvian scandal that the war-making power resides in Congress and not in the executive department of the government. Mr. Blaine seems to have thought otherwise and General Grant labored under a similar delusion. The fact is Republican administrations are incapable of realizing that they do not possess despotic power. This delusion was the outgrowth of the civil war, but with that cool contempt for constitutional methods which has always distinguished it the Republican party continues to assume that it can do exactly as it pleases as long as it holds the reins of power.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., MARCH 7, 1882.

To aid the worthy enterprise,
The ladies have in view—
The building of the Chester Church—
Is what we ought to do,
T'will bring a bright spot to our lives,
Like sunshine through the rift,
So saints and sinners, one and all,
Let's give that Church a lift.

OUR friends at Aberdeen are informed that they can procure the DAILY BULLETIN at Charles Rains' news depot, on Main street.

FIVE prisoners escaped from the station house between midnight and daylight this morning, by breaking a lock that secured one of the doors.

MR. S. J. DAUGHERTY, who has had a life time experience in the stone cutting business, is prepared to fill promptly and in a satisfactory manner all orders entrusted to him. He has on hand now a large stock of headstones and monuments, which he will sell at the most reasonable prices. He invites an inspection of his stock.

The ladies of East Maysville and the vicinity will give a supper and rag-ball party, on Friday and Saturday evenings, next, for the purpose of raising money to finish the new M. E. Church, South, in Chester. The East End Reed and Cornet Band will furnish the music. This move of the ladies is one that deserves substantial encouragement and is to be hoped the call for aid will meet with a generous response.

MR. HARRY TAYLOR, the City Clerk, has learned from Frankfort that the legislation asked by the Maysville Water Company, of which mention is made in the council proceedings elsewhere, is that the water company shall be authorized for the purpose of improving, &c., to create liabilities, either by issuing bonds secured by mortgage upon its works, lands, &c., or to borrow money on negotiable paper issued by the company in good faith.

Mrs. L. V. DAVIS, formerly of this city, is now in the east purchasing for her large millinery house in Cincinnati. Miss S. E. Durain, so well known to the ladies of Maysville as an artistic trimmer, has been in New York several weeks, studying prevailing patterns and styles, and she will return with Mrs. Davis next week. We are sure those of our lady readers who visit Cincinnati will nowhere find more elegant goods than those at the establishment of Mrs. Davis, No. 154 West Fourth Street.

Miss JULIA A. HUNT, will appear at Washington Opera House to-morrow (Wednesday) evening in Sydney Rosenfield's romantic drama, Florinel. It will be produced here under the supervision of the author. Miss Hunt will sustain the title role, as created by her with unqualified success at the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia and throughout the West. She will be supported by an entirely new company of metropolitan artists. There will be a matinee performance at 2 o'clock p. m.

The Accident Insurance Company, represented at this place by M. F. Marsh, is the oldest company of the kind in America, and the largest accident company in the world. It is a sound company and persons of all occupations, if prudent, will secure a yearly policy. These policies will cost from five to twenty dollars a thousand, according to your occupation and the weekly indemnity depends upon the amount of the policy. Don't wait to be solicited but secure a policy without delay.

Council Proceeds.

The marshal was directed to enforce the ordinance prohibiting boats from depositing ashes on the grades.

Building permits were granted as follows: A. B. Greenwood, frame washhouse; C. B. Poyntz, frame house, Third street; Thomas J. Stephens, frame dwelling, fifth ward; W. B. Mathews, corn crib.

On motion of Mr. Dawson it was ordered that whenever the citizens along the line of Patton Alley, from Front to Second street, comply with their agreement to contribute $100 to the work, that the committee on Internal improvements are instructed, as soon as practicable, to grade, repair or macadamize said alley between those streets.

The Maysville Water Company having applied to the legislature for a repeal of a certain section of their charter, the clerk was instructed to write to Frankfort and ascertain the nature of the legislation asked for.

JOHN BUCKNER, George Wood and David Barnes, all colored, met at Crawford's store on Sunday afternoon, and after drinking a good deal of liquor, went to a stable near by to play cards. They soon got to quarreling over the money they had bet, and Buckner and Barnes drew pistols and Wood a knife. Wood took Buckner's pistol from him after which the latter left the building. Barnes and Wood got on their horses and left for their homes and were followed by Buckner to recover his weapon. Wood turned and fired three shots at him. Constable W. L. Moran who happened to be in the neighborhood, arrested the men and took them before Magistrate W. L. Holton for trial. Buckner and Barnes were found guilty of carrying concealed deadly weapons and were held to answer the charge at the next Circuit Court. All three were adjudged guilty of sabbath-breaking and fined for that offense. Buckner and Wood were fined for unlawful gaming.

R H Pollitt and family moved to Sardis last Thursday.

Dr Clifton lectured two nights last week on phonography. On account of the protracted meeting, his audiences were small, but his lectures interesting and instructive.

J R Wilson and J R Minor, of Augusta, were in town recently. The former settling up business concerning his father's estate, the latter looking after his interests as a candidate for County Judge.

Moving is becoming all the rage. Nearly every day, we see movers passing through our town. As spring approaches people in town begin to change. Mrs Wilson has rented rooms from Wm. Daugherty; Jim Penn moves to her property and George Holmes to the house vacated by Penn.

The best of friends must part—perhaps forever, And fondly cherished hopes, must very often sever,

We realize this fact as well as any one in town, And extend our tenderest sympathies to the friends of Sue and John. Dot.

BATCHELDER'S Ventilated Egg Case. Patented February 15, 1881. Indispensable to Merchants Shippers And Producers.

The outside frame of this carrier contains five trays, held in place by fasteners at end of case, as seen in cut. These Trays are constructed in reversible halves. The above cut shows one whole tray filled ready to be placed in case, each egg resting in its cardboard socket in such a manner as to be readily counted, candled, or transferred from tray to tray, or case to case, without rehandling.

For cold storage this case will store 60 dozen with racks made to receive the half trays, hence this is the cheapest storage case manufactured, saving largely in space.

The manner of holding the eggs on end prevents oscillation, adding, or breakage, and adds greatly to their freshness when carried long in storage. Size of 30 dozen No. 1 cases 25x12x14, weighs 20 pounds.
